About Build Show LIVE

Build Show LIVE, created by Informa Markets Construction, a subsidiary of Informa plc (LON:INF), in collaboration with The Build Show, the trusted voice in residential construction, is the premier trade event dedicated to building science, fine craftsmanship and project-specific techniques. Launching November 2024 in Austin Texas, Build Show LIVE will bring together custom home builders, contractors, remodelers, architects, business leaders and top-industry companies to discover ground-breaking products that create powerful solutions. Learn from leading trades experts through live, on-floor building clinics, demonstrations and conference sessions. Build Show LIVE brings its audience together through engaging digital content, hands-on training and the most accessible resources now for the first-time under one roof at the inaugural event for the Build community. To learn more about the event, visit www.buildshowlive.com.
